

The Ringling

THE JOHN & MABLE RINGLING
MUSEUM OF ART

STATE ART MUSEUM OF FLORIDA | FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

PAID SUMMER LIBRARY INTERNSHIP

The John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art in Sarasota, Florida, will be offering a paid internship in its Library for ten weeks June 2 – August 8, 2014. The Ringling is part of Florida State University and serves as the State Art Museum of Florida. Located on a 66-acre site overlooking Sarasota Bay, it consists of an art museum, two circus museums, historic home, theater, and research library.

The Library intern will participate in research on the Ringling's first director, Chick Austin, and his book collection; assist in the preparation of a public program on Austin's book collection; assist with other public programs and assist with reference and digitization.

Ideal candidates will be Graduate students with Bachelors degree in art history or related field; current enrollment in an ALA-accredited MLS program with an interest in special and/or research libraries. International applicants must have a current US Visa and be eligible to work in the US.

The internship pays $11.25 per hour (less taxes). The intern is responsible for his/her own housing (the Museum will assist with locating nearby rentals).

Application materials can be found at <http://ringling.org/internships>

The application deadline is 3/3/14.