Application Deadline: Monday, November 9, 2015 (12PM EST)

Thank you for your interest in the 2016 Travel Awards!

Be aware that this form will not save your answers once you close the browser. There are 4 pages to the application and each page must be completed in full for your application to be considered complete. You must click on the "Done" button at the bottom of page 4 to successfully submit your application.

If you would like to view a complete version of the application questions, you can see a PDF of the form here. Please note that the PDF is meant to aid you in completion of the online form, and should NOT be used as a replacement for the online application.

Conference Travel Awards Open to Current ARLIS/NA Members

Conference Attendance Award

Amount: $1000

Eligibility: Individual member who serves as a committee member, group moderator, and/or chapter officer

Purpose: To encourage participation in ARLIS/NA by assisting conference attendance by committee members, chapter officers, and moderators, of divisions, sections, and round tables.

Andrew Cahan Photography Award

Amount: $1,000

Eligibility: Members who are actively involved in the field of photography through reference, research, or bibliographic work.

Purpose: To encourage participation of members active in the field of photography who could not attend the conference without financial assistance.

Student Conference Attendance Award

Amount: $1000

Eligibility: Student members who are active participants in ARLIS/NA and are currently enrolled in an accredited graduate program in Library Studies and/or Information Studies or have recently graduated (within 12 mos. of graduation)

Purpose: To encourage participation in ARLIS/NA by assisting students considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to attend the annual ARLIS/NA conference.

Conference Travel Awards Open to All Eligible Applicants

Student Diversity Award for Conference Attendance

Amount: $1000

Eligibility: Students from a traditionally under-represented group who are currently enrolled in an accredited graduate program in Library Studies and/or Information Studies or have recently graduated (within 12 mos. of graduation)

Purpose: To encourage multicultural students considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to participate in the activities of ARLIS/NA.

Judith A. Hoffberg Student Award for Conference Attendance

Sponsored by the Art Libraries Society of North America (ARLIS/NA), the Judith A. Hoffberg Student Award for Conference Attendance is given annually in honor of the founding of ARLIS/NA and its first president. The Art Libraries Society of North America was founded in 1972 by a group of art librarians attending the American Library Association annual conference in Chicago at the initiative of Judith Hoffberg.

Amount: $1000

Eligibility: Students who are currently enrolled in an accredited graduate program in Library Studies and/or Information Studies or have recently graduated (within 12 mos. of graduation).

Purpose: To encourage students considering a career in art librarianship or visual resources to participate in the activities of ARLIS/NA.

Howard Karno Travel Award

Amount: $1000

Eligibility: Art librarians residing in Latin America or Art Librarians residing in North America working with significant Latin American art/architecture research collections or researching subjects or themes related to Latin American art/architecture.

Purpose: To encourage professional development of art librarians who work to advance the study of Latin American art through interaction with ARLIS/NA colleagues and conference participation.
