ASSOCIATION OF ARCHITECTURE SCHOOL
LIBRARIANS

Dear AASL Colleagues,

The Programming Committee is issuing a call for five moderators for the 43rd Annual Association of Architecture School Librarians (AASL) Virtual Conference, scheduled for March 11-13, 2021.

Volunteering as a moderator is a great opportunity to participate in the upcoming conference. As a moderator, you will be responsible for introducing the session and speakers, managing the time, a sentence or two of transition between presenters, gathering presentations in advance, and leading discussion. Familiarity with Zoom is beneficial but not required.

Conference Theme: Expanding the View: Prospects for Architecture libraries

The Association of Architecture School Librarians seeks to expand our view by:

- Addressing diversity, equity, and inclusion within the library profession, our own institutions, and promoting social justice.
- Pushing the boundaries of knowledge creation, dissemination, and preservation by investigating new modes, relationships, and technologies.
- Exploring interdisciplinary collaborations between architecture and allied disciplines in university libraries, classrooms, and digital spaces.
- Expanding the library's role in learning, teaching, and research through digital humanities, data curation, visualization, and other emerging technologies.

If you would like to volunteer, please send an email to Nilda Sanchez-Rodriguez (nsanchez@ccny.cuny.edu) with your name and institution, as you would like it to appear in the program by November 19th.

Cheers,
