

Smithsonian

Libraries and Archives

This year, we've taken our annual Adopt-a-Book Evening online and will be hosting a series of four intimate salons in March and April, where you'll have the opportunity to interact with our librarians, archivists, and conservators. You're invited to join us for all four events to see books and materials from each of our 21 library branches and the Archives! For more information and to buy tickets, click the links below.

Space is limited at all events, so buy your tickets today!
