

A VIRTUAL PANEL DISCUSSION

REPARATIVE ARCHIVAL DESCRIPTION: THE PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

---

Thursday, April 18, 2024

2–3:15pm EST

Zoom

---

Reparative Archival Description: The Past, Present, and Future reflects on past initiatives and future directions for reparative archival description work in university and community archives. Introductory presentations by panelists will be followed by a moderated panel discussion to discuss challenges and future opportunities. Hosted by Yale University Library's Reparative Archival Description (RAD) working group, this event is free and open to the public. Registration is required.

---

Yale UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Alexis Antracoli Director, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan.

Jackie Dean Head, Archival Processing Section, Wilson Library, UNC Chapel Hill.

Krista McCracken Researcher / Curator, Shingwauk Residential Schools Centre, Algoma University, Baawaating (Sault Ste. Marie, ON, Canada).

Jessica Tai Processing Archivist, Bancroft Library, UC Berkeley. Former RAD Chair, Yale University.

Alison Clemens Access Strategist for Special Collections, Beinecke Library, Yale University. Current RAD Member.

Scan the QR Code to Register:

https://yale.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_nnTZN939TOaOhWJuSB7PDw